ACTIVITIES/ FOOD

Falkland is a gem of a village and Pillars is a lovely organic farm on its outskirts. For the active ones there is space for ball games and beautiful woods to walk and cycle in. If you're not keen on camping then come for the day, discover Falkland Palace and Gardens and have tea in the café, or browse the local craft shops. It's a great chance to hang out, get to know others and build community.

Bring your own food, including items for a shared BBQ on Saturday evening. Saturday pm; Communal BBQ Sunday am; Prayer and Worship

BOOKING

There are a good number of spaces but not unlimited so please book soon to avoid disappointment.

To book your place go to Churchsuite, the 'News' section on our website (www.cce.community) or by scanning the QR code. If the cost of joining the weekend is prohibitive for you, please select the discounted option when booking.
